IFDC

Article I - Anti-Terrorism Policy

1.1 Policy Statement IFDC firmly condemns all forms of terrorism and is committed to not knowingly supporting, tolerating, or encouraging any activities related to terrorism, including but not limited to financing, radicalization, hate, disinformation, and fake campaigns.

In accordance with United Nations Security Council resolutions, including S/RES/1269 (1999), S/RES/1368 (2001), and S/RES/1373 (2001), IFDC pledges wholehearted dedication to the global fight against terrorism, especially the financing of terrorism or the misuse of funds for any acts associated with terrorism. IFDC's policy aims to ensure that neither its own funds nor donor funds are utilized, directly or indirectly, to provide support to individuals or entities involved in terrorism. IFDC is committed to following all legal instruments and the constitution of its host country to promote integration, peace, transparency, the rule of law, and democracy.

1.2 Approach

IFDC's procedures are built on a "deter, detect, prevent, and respond" policy to mitigate the risk of aid diversion, including terrorism financing.

This approach includes:

- i. Regular risk assessments to evaluate the threat of terrorism targeting or undermining our operations.
- ii. Strict adherence to a code of conduct among IFDC staff and staff of partner organizations, emphasizing anti-diversion and clear financial transaction guidelines with armed groups.
- iii. Maintenance of comprehensive financial records, including detailed breakdowns of income and expenditure in annual financial statements.
- iv. Conducting annual external audits of expenses and specific projects.
- v. The right to conduct third-party reference checks on individuals with contractual ties to IFDC to ensure they are not associated with terrorism or on counter-terrorism lists, using industry-standard auto-screening software.

1.3 Enforcement

IFDC Directors are responsible for:

- I. Ensuring compliance with relevant legislation, IFDC's Code of Conduct, and policies by IFDC, its staff members, volunteers, interns, and contractors
- II. Ensuring compliance with relevant legislation and policies by partner organizations, their board members, staff, volunteers, and contractors involved in projects funded by or through IFDC.
- III. Reporting any information related to policy breaches to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/Executive Director.
- IV. All employees, volunteers, and interns are responsible for complying with this policy and relevant legislation.

IFDC Administration Director is responsible for:

- i. Recruitment of employees, volunteers, interns, and any additional third-party reference checks.

- ii. Ensuring that each staff member adheres to IFDC's Code of Conduct.
- iii. Ensuring compliance with relevant data protection legislation.
- iv. Providing support during any complaint or dismissal process.

IFDC Finance Manager is responsible for:

- i. Maintaining financial records and tracking expenses and income.
- ii. Using a multicurrency accounting system to track expenses or income with unique references (voucher numbers) in the system.
- iii. Linking each direct cost to a specific project, contract, and donor.
- iv. Implementing internal controls outlined in IFDC's Finance Manual of procedures.
- v. Selecting banks/financial institutions through due diligence checks, including third-party reference checks.
- vi. Managing cash processes, conducting monthly cash checks, and ensuring transparent fund use.
- vii. Ensuring all payments follow defined procedures in IFDC's Finance Manual of Procedures, with no commitments of expenses without prior authorization.
- viii. Requesting confirmation of funds receipt following any payment.
- ix. Seeking Board of Directors' review and validation before accepting donations or any other sources of funding.
- x. Ensuring that IFDC does not make donations to external entities without Board of Directors' review, validation, due diligence on the entity, and signing of a contract.

Article II - Anti-Trafficking Policy

2.1 Policy Statement

IFDC vehemently condemns all forms of human trafficking and the commercial sexual exploitation of children. The organization upholds the right to safety and security, especially for children who are vulnerable to exploitation. Protecting children from sexual exploitation is a moral imperative, and socially responsible policies and practices must reflect this principle.

IFDC will fully comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to the prevention of human trafficking and the commercial sexual exploitation of children. The organization will cooperate with law enforcement authorities to address instances of exploitation involving IFDC or its employees.

2.2 Approach

IFDC employees are strictly prohibited from:

- i. Using IFDC facilities, resources, or equipment for any purposes related to child exploitation or the viewing, storage, distribution, promotion, or other use of materials depicting children in sexual acts or any form of prurient interest.
- ii. Engaging, on behalf of IFDC, in any business relationships or arrangements with organizations believed to participate in any way in human trafficking and the commercial sexual exploitation of children.
- iii. Using or allowing the use of images captured for project purposes or concepts that sexually exploit children.

2.3 Enforcement i. All employees must immediately report any suspected human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children to the Executive Director. ii. Under no circumstances may IFDC funds, property, or personnel be used to support activities related to human trafficking or child exploitation.

IFDC's Administration Director is responsible for the recruitment of employees, volunteers, interns, and any additional third-party reference checks, ensuring compliance with IFDC's Code of Conduct, adhering to relevant data protection legislation, and providing support during any complaint or dismissal process.
