Policy Statement

International Foundation for Digital Child (IFDC) is dedicated to safeguarding the privacy and security of children who engage with our website. This Child Privacy Policy elucidates how we gather, employ, and safeguard the personal information of children under the age of [15] in full accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Information Collection: a. We exclusively collect personal information from children with verifiable parental consent. This information may encompass the child's name, age, email address, and any additional details requisite for our website's functionality or services.

- a. b. We abstain from collecting sensitive personal information from children without explicit parental consent.
- b. Information is directly collected from the child or the parent/guardian through a secure and age-appropriate process.

Purpose of Information Collection:

- a. The personal information amassed from children serves the singular purpose of providing our website's services and features. This encompasses account creation, personalized content, and communication pertinent to our services.
- b. We refrain from sharing children's personal information with third parties for marketing or promotional purposes unless there is verifiable parental consent.

Parental Consent:

- a. Verifiable parental consent is a prerequisite before any personal information is collected from children under the age of 15. This consent is acquired through a secure verification process, which may encompass a consent form or robust authentication methods.
- a. Parents possess the right to inspect, amend, or delete their child's personal information by contacting us using the information furnished in this policy.

Security Measures:

- a. We uphold apt technical, physical, and administrative safeguards to shield children's personal information against unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.
- b. Our security measures undergo periodic reviews and updates to conform to industry standards.

Third-Party Services:

- a. Our website may feature links to third-party services or content. We urge parents and guardians to scrutinize the privacy policies of these external sites to fathom how their children's information is managed.
- b. We do not assume responsibility for the privacy practices or content of third-party websites.

User-Generated Content:

- a. Our website may permit users, including children, to submit or craft content. We institute moderation mechanisms to ensure the safety and appropriateness of the content accessible to children.
- b. Any user-generated content that contravenes our policies or is regarded as inappropriate will be expeditiously removed.

Updates to the Child Privacy Policy:

- a. We reserve the prerogative to amend this Child Privacy Policy to mirror changes in regulations, technology, or our information practices.
- b. All updates will be prominently displayed on our website, and we encourage periodic review of this policy.

For any inquiries or concerns regarding our Child Privacy Policy or to exercise your rights as a parent or guardian, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@ifdchild.lk.
