

INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR DIGITAL CHILD

Procurement Policy

2023

IFDC

Policy Statement

This Procurement Policy outlines the principles and procedures governing the procurement of goods and services by the IFDC. The primary objective of this policy is to ensure that IFDC acquires goods and services of the highest quality at the best possible prices through a fair, open, transparent, and accountable process. All staff involved in the procurement process are expected to adhere to this policy. The policy applies to the procurement of goods and services, whether funded by donors or membership fees.

1. Objectives

The objective of this procurement policy is to establish a framework for IFDC's procurement activities.

2. Purpose of Procurement

The purpose of procurement at IFDC is to:

- a. Obtain high-quality goods and services.
- b. Achieve cost-effectiveness by evaluating quotations and tenders based on competitive pricing, quality, and bidder track record.
- c. Ensure transparency in the procurement process by providing all necessary information to facilitate competitive tenders.

3. Application

This procurement policy applies to all staff involved in the procurement process and covers all types of procurement, including those funded by donors and membership fees.

4. Principles

In the procurement of goods and services, IFDC personnel shall adhere to the following principles:

- a. Fairness: Ensure fair competition and provide all bidders with the same level of information when preparing quotations and tenders.
- b. Cost Effectiveness: Evaluate quotations and tenders based on competitive pricing, quality of products/services, and the track record of bidders.
- c. Transparency: Tender documents should provide all necessary information for the submission of appropriate and competitive tenders.

5. Approval Process

The approval process for procurement is as follows:

Amount (USD)	Responsibility for Preparation	Final Approval/Approval Chain
--------------	--------------------------------	-------------------------------

Amount (USD)	Responsibility for Preparation	Final Approval/Approval Chain
Below 3,500	Project Staff	Program Managers
3,500–15,000	Project Staff	Director/CEO
15,000 – 30,000	Project Staff/Senior Management Staff	Director/CEO, President
30,000 – 50,000	Project Staff/Senior Management Staff	Director/CEO, President, and any member of FOC
50,000 – 75,000	Project Staff/Senior Management Staff	Director/CEO, President, and Chairperson of FOC
75,000 – 100,000	Project Staff/Senior Management Staff	Director/CEO, President, Chairperson of FOC, and one more member of FOC
More than 100,000	Project Staff/Senior Management Staff	Director/CEO, President, Chairperson of FOC, and two members of FOC

6. Procurement Methods

The procurement methods based on the amount and nature of the procurement of goods or services are as follows:

Amount (USD)	Procurement Type	Conditions
Below 3,500	Small Purchase Procurement	- Simple and informal procurement of services, supplies, or other items not exceeding USD 3,500. - Verbal requests for quotations or email quotations from qualified suppliers/contractors with a history of fair pricing and quality. - Procurement process approved by the Executive Director or immediate program managers. - A minimum of one quotation is mandatory. - No procurement committee required.
3,500–15,000	General	- Procurement of services and goods costing

Amount (USD)	Procurement Type	Conditions
	Procurements	USD 3,500–15,000. - Requires a minimum of three quotations from different well-known vendors. - Bid Matrix prepared by the relevant project staff. - Bid Matrix approved in accordance with section 5 of the procurement policy.
15,000 – 30,000	Advance Procurement	- IFDC should issue an open bid through its official website with details and a summary in a national newspaper, and communicate with regular service providers via email. - Formal quotations delivered by post, by hand, or via email. - A minimum of three quotations is mandatory. - Procurement committee assessment required. - Procurement approved in accordance with section 5 of the procurement policy. - Selection memo signed by all procurement committee members, explaining the selection rationale.
30,000 – 50,000	Closed Tender	- IFDC should issue an open bid through its official website and national newspapers, with a summary in a national newspaper and communication with regular service providers via email. - Formal quotations delivered by post or via email (no hand delivery accepted). - A minimum of three quotations is mandatory. - All quotes duly registered. - Procurement committee required. - Procurement approved in accordance with section 5 of the procurement policy. - Selection memo signed by all procurement committee members, explaining the selection rationale.
50,000 – 75,000	Procurement by Tender	- IFDC should issue an open bid through its official website and two national newspapers, with communication to regular service providers via email. - Formal quotations delivered through post or email (no hand delivery accepted). - All tenders recorded in a Tender Register. - Procurement committee required. - Procurement approved in accordance with section 5 of the procurement policy. - Selection memo signed by all procurement committee members, explaining the selection rationale.

Amount (USD)	Procurement Type	Conditions
More than 75,000	Closed Bid	- IFDC should issue an open bid through its official website and three national newspapers. - Bids submitted in a format provided by IFDC. - All bids sealed and kept closed. - Evaluation conducted by procurement committee members. - Selection memo signed by all procurement committee members, explaining the selection rationale.

7. Procurement Policy Application and Responsibility

- The finance team is responsible for maintaining an open and competitive procurement process.
- Bids, proposals, and quotations will be evaluated by the procurement committee, and contracts will be awarded based on their recommendations and with the approval process mentioned in this policy.
- Confidentiality of information pertinent to the bidding process should be maintained until its conclusion in an open and competitive process.
- Any deviation from these guidelines requires written authorization from the Chairperson of the FOC.

8. Code of Conduct

IFDC's Code of Conduct outlines responsibilities and procedures to maintain the highest standards of integrity in procurement activities. Interactions with external entities selling goods and services are potentially vulnerable to fraud. To protect IFDC and its staff, the following guidelines must be followed:

- a. Give first consideration to IFDC's best interests, objectives, and policies.
- b. Avoid any actions that foster suspicion of conflicts between professional duty and personal interest.
- c. Decline personal gifts or gratuities from current or potential suppliers.
- d. Treat all suppliers equitably as per IFDC and donor specifications.
- e. Conduct business with suppliers in good faith and without intentional misrepresentation.
- f. Attempt to negotiate equitable and mutually agreeable settlements of controversies with suppliers.
- g. Promote fair, ethical, and legal trade practices.
- h. Maintain strict confidentiality of information received from suppliers.

9. Gifts

No gifts or money should be accepted, except for inexpensive (less than USD 30)